BANGKOK (LAEM CHABANG*), THAILAND

Bangkok mixes heritage and ultra-modern, with the 18th-century royal district at its heart. The overnight stay offers more experiences in this vibrant capital, like bustling night markets and dinner in chic rooftop restaurants. Wat Pho is a must-see, famous for its huge gold-plated reclining Buddha and renowned massage school. For shopping, visit Siam Square for commercial malls, or the Pratunam district for fashion boutiques selling both retail and wholesale.

HO CHI MINH CITY (PHU MY*), VIETNAM

The port of Phu My leads to the vibrant and exciting Ho Chi Minh City, also known as Saigon, where you can immerse yourself in unique colors, aromas, and sights. Discover fascinating tunnel network at Cu Chi.

HONG KONG, CHINA

The most striking thing about Hong Kong is its pervasive mix of old and new. With ramshackle apartment buildings flanked by uber-modern high-rises, a rickety street-level tram clanking by above a state-of-the-art subway system, and wheelbarrows being pushed through the streets alongside Rolls-Royces, Hong Kong is a study in contrasts that constantly surprises.

KUALA LUMPUR (PORT KLANG*), MALAYSIA

Malaysia's capital has a unique charm and appeal that draws people from all around the world. Kuala Lumpur's must-see tourist attraction is its iconic Petronas Twin Towers, which are the tallest twin buildings in the world. Wander around the surrounding city streets and vast malls in this shopper's paradise to experience the diversity of Asian culture to its fullest.

LANGKAWI, MALAYSIA

Let your imagination soar among the many magical myths and legends surrounding the 99 islands of Langkawi. Replete with ancient geological wonders like mysterious caves and mist-shrouded mountains, this premier vacation destination is an absolute tropical paradise endowed with a beauty that only nature's variety can offer.

OKINAWA (NAHA*), JAPAN

Naha is the largest city in the Okinawa prefecture. Places of interest include Shuri Castle which houses the ruins of the Enkaku-ji Temple, Tama-don and the Tombs of Kings of Ryukyu. Fresh seafood, cooling sea breeze and long stretch of beaches await her visitors.

PENANG, MALAYSIA

Gorgeous beaches. Abundant culture. Rich history. Excellent food. Truly, there is more to see and experience in the "Pearl of the Orient" than one person can possibly handle and we think you will like it. One of the most multicultural cities in all of Asia, Penang is like a concentrated version of the entire continent, while maintaining its own identity at the same time.

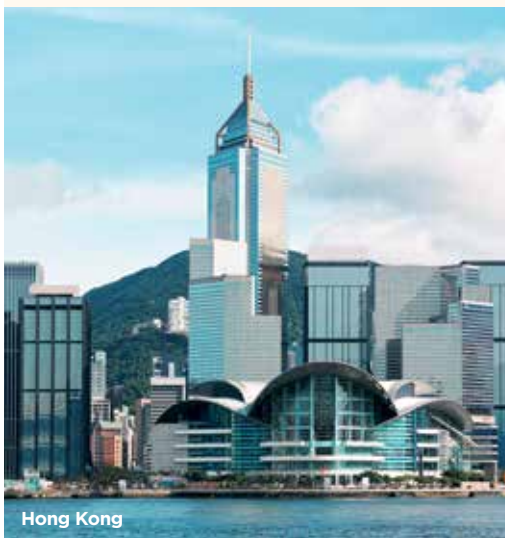

PHUKET, THAILAND

Phuket, Thailand's largest island is often dubbed as the pearl of the Andaman, or the Pearl of the South. Its natural resources, rocky peninsular, limestone cliffs, white powdery beaches, tranquil broad bays and tropical in-land forests contribute to making it the South's most visited and most popular island and province.

SHANGHAI (BAOSHAN*), CHINA

Known as "Paris of the East", explore this most cosmopolitan city in China through an excursion touring Yuyuan Garden, Shanghai Museum and the Jade Buddha Temple with a stop at a silk factory to learn how silk is collected and woven to make carpet.

*Ship will dock at port city listed in parentheses.
