BRIEF ITINERARY:

Day 01 : Arrival in Kuching (No Meals)

Meet upon arrival at Kuching International Airport. Meet and greet by our friendly representative and transfer to Damai Beach Resort for check-in.

Day 02 : Irrawaddy Dolphin Cruise/ Evening Sunset Cruise (Breakfast)

This trip of about 3 hours explores the many branches of the Santubong and Salak River Delta systems as they join the South China Sea. Enjoy a close view of the heavily silted mangroves swamp which is safe heaven to the myriad creatures like the reptile, mud skippers, crabs, shell fish, monkeys, etc. The mangroves swamp sustains different species of trees. The main species are of course the black and red mangroves, locally known as the "Bako". They are used in the construction industry for piling and also as charcoal for cooking and other usage. Often mistaken as wasteland, the tidal swamp in which mangrove thrives: enjoy a symbiotic relationship with prawns, fish and other coastal organisms. The Irrawaddy, or snubfin dolphin, inhabits rivers, estuaries and shallow coastal areas. The Santubong are is one of the best places in Sarawak to view these unusual looking marine mammals. The dolphin is often swimming and diving around small boats in the estuary. Occasionally they are seen playing in the open water. Visitors will need a keen eye to spot the dolphin at first, but after a short wait they can often be seen surfacing all around the boat. Return to the boat club for transfer to city hotel and rest. Late evening continues to Sarawak River Cruise. A cruise along the Sarawak Cruise is a relaxing way to enjoy the various phases of the city and retrace the trip James Brooke made when he first arrived in Sarawak. You will sail past the Waterfront, Brooke Dockyard, the 100-year-old of Malay Kampung, Fort Margherita, Astana, Square Tower and the Industrial Estate. As you sail toward the sea colorful fishing boats will appear in abound and nearby Bako after the Chinese and Malay Villages are houses and mansions of Kuching affluent society. The constant changing of this living scenery gives you the best picture of the history and lifestyles in Kuching. Transfer back to hotel for overnight.
